Residency program name: "REC.ON Coliving & Remote Work SPOT"

Location: Bolaimi, Sierra Estancia Mountains, Andalusia, Spain

Duration: January- June 2024

Who the program is for:

REC.ON Coliving & Remote Work SPOT is the perfect place for digital nomads, travelers and people who work remotely.

We offer comfortable rooms and coworking spaces that will allow you to combine remote work with meeting a community of like-minded people, all surrounded by nature and art with an ecological mission.

Residence offer:

Accommodation: Art&Eco residence offers 3 rooms in "rustic design" style with Wi-Fi, heating, along with coworking space.

We also have outdoor space - chillout areas, garden, which allow you to get away from work and be with nature at any time.

During your stay you have the opportunity to participate in various workshops, including permaculture and upcycling. In addition, we organize games, activities and bonfires together.

Program Mission:

REC.ON Coliving & Remote Work SPOT enables and integrates remote work with travel opportunities, while creating an environment to make new connections and collaborate with other travelers and artists who share a passion for conscious and free living.

Coliving room for 1 person/4 weeks:
600 EUR.

The price includes:

accommodation (kitchen and toilet - common space)

daily coffee and baguette to start the day.

daily glass of local red wine coworking space with WIFI to work in or the option to use your own space.

In addition, it is possible to order lunches on site (costs to be agreed individually).
